DR. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR

"DIABETES SPECIALIST."

RARE AND INVALUABLE SPECIFIC FOR THE CURE OF "DIABETES."

After a short visit to the Madras Presidency on professional work Dr. S. RANGASWAMI IYENGAR, the well-known Diabetes Specialist has RETURNED TO BOMBAY and will be glad to treat "DIABETES" suffering patients.

During the short stay he has made here before he has treated and has completely cured many persons of whom the following are a few:—

KANYALAL BADRIDAS, a Cotton Merchant, Bombay writes:—

"It gives me great pleasure in testifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's medicinal drugs. I was suffering from "Diabetes" for the last 12 years—Commenced Dr. Iyengar's treatment—my urine was examined by the Bombay Municipal Analyst the Sp. Gravity was 1037 and sugar 5-62 per cent. After treatment, the examination of the same Municipal Analyst; and Dr. N. H. Clubwala M. D. B. Hy. (Bombay) at Dr. Masina Hospital Pathological Laboratory "Sugar was found nil" and Sp. Gravity 1013.

Mr. BHAILAL V. KHOTHARI, B.A., LL.B., Vakil, High Court, Bombay, writes:—

"It gives me great and sincere pleasure in testifying to the real efficacy of Dr. S. R. Iyengar's medical drugs. I was suffering from Diabetes for over 4 years and had tried many well-known doctors of Bombay but without any effect. I then put myself under the treatment of the said Doctor Iyengar and he prescribed a course of 7 complete weeks for me. As each week progressed the disease that could not at all be controlled before, began to abate with the result that I was completely cured at the end of the course, in such a marvellous way that I can very well say that Dr. Iyengar is not a diabetes specialist in name but a specialist indeed in reality. My Sp. Gr. which was 1038 in the beginning of the course came down to 1015 at the end and grains of sugar per ounce of urine fell down from 24 to nil while sediments were not at all visible.

FREIGHT MARKET REPORT.

Bombay, 5th November, 1920.

After a long time of dullness, this market has shown a little activity during the week under report.

Karachi did a fairly large business during the week and following the line taken up by Karachi, Bombay has done some business in freights. A Liner booked Hull at 50 light seeds and 55 seeds for a November steamer. Some Hamburg was also booked at rates varying from 70 to 80. A small quantity was booked for London at 45 l. s. 50 seeds and 60 measurement for Dec/-Jan. and at 5 more for Jan/Feb. A fair line was done for Antwerp at 60 l. s. 65 seeds measurement. Also for Italian ports business was done for about 1500 ton at 50 light seeds, 55 seeds and 60 measurement for Dec/Jan.

It is expected that after Diwali holidays further activities might be seen.

Quotations are as follows:—

BOMBAY, Nov. 5.

During the week under review Home Markets show following changes as will be seen from table below:—

	26th Oct. 1920.	2nd Nov. 1920
Liverpool Spot	18-56	18-03—53
New York Spot	22-50	22-50 Unchgd

New York Jan.	1921	21-75	20-75—100
New York Mar.	1921	21-55	20-80—105

Advices from Home Markets continue of a bearish character owing to financial stringency, bad trade outlook and increased crop estimates. They advise selling on advances.

As for forward business in our Local Market there is no chance for the market to open until satisfactory settlement arrived at between trade and Cotton Contracts Board.

As for ready cotton there was a brisk enquiry both by Exporters and Mills at an advance of Rs 20-25 per candy. Yesterday for new Khamgaon business for 100 Rs. was reported at Rs. 380 on stamped Bp. for 25th November delivery.

CHEMICALS.

Nov 5.

Bleaching Powder has shown considerable shrinkage in values. Large stocks are available in the market. The prices vary between Rs. 15 and 20 per cwt. However, a few weak-holders have shown willingness to part with their holdings at less than Rs. 15 owing to stringency in money market and partly owing to Diwali holidays.

Farina fluctuates between Rs. 15/8/0 and 16/8/0, however, the tendency is rather upwards, and stockists await for better prices after Diwali.

Sodium, Sulphide, Zinc Chloride, Bichromate of Soda and Potash are almost steady. Few transactions are closed at last rates. A healthier demand is expected to revive after Diwali holidays

The Exchange has slightly improved and further improvement is still expected. However, owing to the weakness displayed in the rate of Exchange recently, several of the foreign Drafts remain unretired

The quotations are as under:—
Sodium Sulphide, Rs. 35/45.
Zinc Chloride, Rs. 30/35.
Bleaching Powder Rs. 15/20.
Caustic Soda, Rs. 30.
Washing Soda Rs. 6/8.
Glauber Salt Rs. 7.
Brown Sugar of dead, Rs. 50.
Litharge, Rs. 30.
Farina K Rs. 16/8.
Sago Flour Rs. 12.
Turkey Red Oil Rs. 29.
Antimony Salt, Rs. 2/10 lb.

COLOUR-MARKET.

Nov. 5.

The market is steady. Had it not been for the poor demand the exchange fluctuations would have stirred up the market. The stock-holders have been nervous in their holding owing to the stringency in the money market. Again it seems many of the mills are importing directly. New Year is drawing near and merchants are anxious to clear off part of their stock in Muhurat transactions. The tone this week is steady.

To-days quotations are.—
Alizarine (Big P.) Rs. 300 to 300 per drum.
Alizarine (Ger.) Rs. 250 per cwt.
Congo-Red (Nizam) Rs. 4/4/0 per lb.
Congo-Red (Haven) Rs. 4 per lb.
Congo-Red (Bolt) Rs. 4 per lb.
Direct Green Rs. 5 to 6 per lb.
Malachite Green Rs. 8/8/0 per lb.
Magenta Crystals Rs. 18 per lb.
Magenta Crystals. (Bolt) Rs. 14/8/0 per lb.
Auramine Rs. 6/8/0 per lb.
Methyl Violet Rs. 7 to 8 per lb.

MR. ANDREWS INTERVIEWED.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

The following is the full text of an interview which Mr. C. F. Andrews in Hyderabad gave to a special correspondent, of "The Chronicle":—

Q.—In your interview with the "Searchlight" you have referred to the present problem of the untouchables as a great hindrance to attainment of independence for there is a possibility of the "untouchables" opposing the demand for independence. But do you suggest that propaganda for independence should be postponed until the problem of the "untouchables" has been solved?

A.—No, not at all. I am very glad you asked this question. What I strongly hold is this, that the Indian goal of independence is clear before us. We must immediately begin side by side with our own claim, a claim for the independence, if I may so call it of the "untouchables." Let me give you an example. I was walking down a street of Palghat with a young science student who had most, nobly struggled through difficulties of poverty and wished to become a doctor when he had passed his examinations. In the middle of our talk he suddenly ran away. I turned to my other companion and asked him what was the reason. The reply was given thus: "He is an untouchable." The street we went down was a Brahman quarter and I saw indolence and sloth written on the faces of those, who sat in their verandahs. I was told that if this bright young science student, whose feet I would gladly have touched in reverence for his noble struggle with poverty, had gone down that street these men would have got up in savage hate and beaten him almost to death. A case of such a beating had occurred not long ago in that very town itself. Now let me turn to South Africa. I was at the Johannesburg Station with Mr. Ramdas, son of Mahatma Gandhi. The mail train for Durban came in from Pretoria and Mr. Ramdas took my writing case to put it on my seat in the compartment. I was just behind him and I saw a young English lad suddenly strike out at Mr. Ramdas. I was only just in time to prevent a blow. About half a minute later as we were going out of the corridor of the train I saw the conductor seizing Mr. Ramdas by the neck and shouting out: "What are you doing here, you?" Again, I had to seize the conductor and stop an act of violence. All this happened in the course of a half a minute just because Mr. Ramdas went into the compartment marked for "Europeans only." Now I ask a simple question. Is there really any difference between the actions of those Europeans in South Africa and these Indians in that street in Palbhat? It seems to me that we ought to fight against both evils at one and the same time. We must not allow either of them to go on existing on God's earth one moment longer.

INJUSTICE TO ASIATICS.

Q.—Would the measure of qualified freedom proposed to be granted to Egypt in regard to foreign affairs be the least which will satisfy Indians view of the fact that England's foreign policy in the East particularly, in regard to Mesopotamia and Arabia, is in conflict with the views of Indians would it not be better to ask for a higher minimum?

A.—You will notice that in my message I said that we should demand Independence not less than that of Egypt. Personally I myself feel that every year brings nearer the time when India must act with the rest of Asia on vital Asiatic questions. This is the aspect of the Khilifat question which appears to me most of all. We have made our voice for the first time in 160 years heard in Europe with regard to foreign affairs. This is all to the good. If India receives her independence she must endeavour as soon as possible, to be so unhampered as to be able lead the thought of Asia in matters that are vital to Asia. By far the most important of these is that of the exclusion of the citizens of Asia from almost fourfifths of the rest of the world. That is to say the problem of the ever increasing severity of the anti-Asiatic emigration laws. For instance, there is probably no more flagrant injustice on God's earth in the way of territorial aggression than the refusal of White Australia to allow the tropical Australia to be occupied by neighbouring inhabitants of Asia. More than one half of the whole population of the world lies within the neighbourhood of the tropical Australia, yet the inhabitants of the tiny island in the North Sea, called England, after settling in temperate Australia are keeping the whole of the tropical Australia unoccupied although it is certain they can never occupy it themselves. These kinds of injustice directed against the Asiatics are proving more and more intolerable in every part of the tropical and subtropical world. A kind of cordon is being drawn round the thickly populated region of south-eastern Asia which is the most congested in the whole world. Every European writer recognises the danger of this problem, yet Asia is absolutely helpless unless the whole of Asia can act as one in resisting this intolerable injustice. All this points to the need of a clear definition of the independence of India in matters purely relating to Asia. You will see from this that I do not think India will have gained the independence she needs unless she is able to join with China and Japan in making her protests against Asiatic exclusion. I can fully understand the enormous difficulty of Great Britain allowing a place for such independence because Australia is a daughter colony and Canada also would be affected, yet I feel certain that India must claim freedom of action in Asia in order to be really free. What I am thinking of is, that the next step in the world's history may need a kind of Monroe Doctrine for Asia similar to the Monroe Doctrine of America.

Q.—Could you please explain the reference to Monroe Doctrine more fully?

A.—What I mean is this. Since the year 1880 almost the whole of Africa has been swallowed up by Europeans. One time early in the present century it seemed almost certain that Asia would have to succumb also for China was on the very point of being partitioned. Now it is an historical fact that South America was saved from a similar fate by one thing only, namely the Monroe Doctrine, which prevented any interference of Europeans in South American affairs. When England appeared to be anxious to take territory in Venezuela the United States immediately interfered. Asia needs a somewhat similar defence otherwise the rapacity of Europe will break out again as it has been showing signs of doing since the armistice of November 1918. Therefore, I hold the opinion that any independence would be unsatisfactory which does not leave India free to make alliances in Asia.

NAGPUR CONGRESS.

Q.—Have you any suggestions to make in regard to the forthcoming Nagpur Congress?

A.—I do not like to make any suggestions because I have never taken any active part in any National Congress and have always with fixed purpose kept aloof. It has so far appeared to me that I could be of great service to India by such absence. I very strongly hold that the Congress must be entirely throughout from beginning to end under Indian leadership and Indian leadship alone. The days of such help as Mr. A. O. Hume could give are now over. As a critic looking from outside I feel the revision of the clause concerning boycott on foreign goods is absolutely necessary. I would also like the meaning of Swarajya to be defined. Personally as you will see from my first answer, I cannot think of Swarajya except as independence and also as including the

RELIEVES INDIGESTION IN TWO MINUTES.

SIMPLE REMEDY SAVES DOCTORS' BILLS.

If you suffer from dyspepsia, indigestion, pain after eating, gastritis, heartburn, or any stomach trouble due to acidity or food fermentation—and over ninety per cent. of stomach complaints are due to these causes—go to your chemist, and get a bottle of 'Bisurated' Magnesia. The next time you eat or have pain in the stomach take half a teaspoonful in a little hot water, and note how quickly all pains and discomforts cease. The reason for this is simple—it is due to the fact that 'Bisurated' Magnesia quickly neutralises the excess acid and stops fermentation, thus promoting healthy, natural digestion. Being absolutely harmless, as well as inexpensive, 'Bisurated' Magnesia should be kept on hand in every home where economy and good health are sought.

Bisurated Magnesia is one of the best remedies for Indigestion, and is also obtainable in tablet form. Beware of substitutes. Look for the makers' name, BISMAG LIMITED, which appears on every genuine package.

IMAGINE the worst sharks that exist in New York's Chinatown—a daring cracksman, a beautiful girl as tough and wicked as a snake, a faker who counterfeits any deformity a dope-fiend as sly as a weasel.

Imagine such crooks in a little village, invading the lives of other human beings as good as these are bad—the acid of sin striving to bite into the gold of pure hearts.

Imagine! . . . .

Imagine all you've known of good and bad in this world and even then you can't imagine the wondrous appeal of "The Miracle MAN."

Unbiased critics have hailed this picture as a screen masterpiece and one of the really great motion-pictures of modern times.

Telling a stupendous story of universal appeal, it is one of those rare products of the screen that hold an audience spell-bound from start to finish.

SUGARMARKET REPORT.

Bombay, 5th Nov 1920.

We have to report a further depression in our market which remains unsettled and inactive and prices for ready Sugars have been further erduced by four rupees per cwt. "THE GREAT EXAMPLE"

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE".

Sir,—I was amazed at reading in to-day's "Chronicle" your editorial, "The Great Example." As one concerned in the matter, I am sorry to say that your comments have been based on an entire misconception of the facts. If you had not given undue prominence to the incident by editorial notice, I should have willingly let the matter rest there. But as you seem to have misunderstood the whole trend of our opposition and done an injustice to me and my supporters—may be unconsciously—I feel it my duty to point out the error you have inadvertently fallen into in assuming that we regarded the Sabha—or the occasion?—"as a party playground, etc." And then you proceed to observe that—

(1) "to have refused a vote of thanks to Mr. Jinnah and his colleagues would have been to deny their honesty of purpose and their patriotism"; and

(2) "the opposition to the vote of thanks, however small, shows that there are still some members who do not yet perceive the greatness of their task and its responsibility".

I hope you will pardon me for saying that the inference you have drawn is far from being true or correct. I must repudiate your imputation that we regard the Sabha or the occasion "as a party playground" or that by refusing a vote of thanks to Mr. Jinnah and his colleagues we denied their honesty of purpose and their patriotism. Why you should have rushed to this conclusion, which is not quite so obvious as you seem to think, I am unable to comprehend.

If you will kindly permit me to repeat a portion of what I said at the meeting in support of my contention, you will be pleased to realise that our opposition to the vote rested on the ground that the gentlemen who had tendered their resignation more or less in a huff because they could not be in the right with the majority who had failed to do their duty by the general body of the members of the League during the most critical period of its history, and whose services to the League during the year under review were next to nil, did not deserve thanks. The opposition to the vote was not because of the one or the other of the signatories, but it was one of principle. I must decline to believe that by our opposition, we by ourselves are open to the charge that we "do not perceive the greatness" of our task or "its responsibility." On the other hand we have been too much dominated by the tyranny of custom, which in these days has acquired the force of a hoary tradition that when "the oracles open their lips let no dog bark." Our attitude was a protest against this tyranny. For the rest there is not much in your observations with which I am not generally in agreement. I hope you will in fairness to me and my supporters, who were more in number than your report mentions, publish this letter.—Yours, etc.,

BOYCOTT CRACKERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I and others of my view are grieved to see our brethren spending lacks of rupees in buying crackers as per figures given in the "Gujrati," to provide a fleeting pleasure for their children during Divali. This sum could be better used, without any sacrifice, in relieving the distress of their poor countrymen suffering from famine. There is really no return from the use of crackers, but by paying in such funds for the relief of our poor brethren the hidden return will be manifold through their blessings.

The Swaraj Sabha might start at once such a Swaraj Relief Fund with a view to give instantaneous help as soon as any district is known to be affected instead of waiting for the official declaration of famine in any district, as the same is ways too late. First aid does more good than to allow thousands to waste and die, and then to run about collecting funds. Further, if one rupee from every adult wage-earning man is contributed towards such a fund, thinking that the rupees has been dropped, the fund would soon swell to lakhs. I am prepared to contribute my mite of Rs. 25, poor clerk as I am, to be given away in any such fund.—Yours, etc.,

MRS. BESANT'S "WARNING?"

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I beg to draw the serious attention of all thinking men and true lovers of India to the utterance of Mrs. Annie Besant, a true Imperialist at heart, as reported in the Times of India dated 29-10-1920. What does the warning mean? Is it a sincere advice given to the people of India to refrain from pursuing the path of non-cooperation because she is in the know of Government and therefore warns Indians against the terrible consequences of a future eventuality of the British Governmet asking for the aid of Japan to help in putting down the rebellious Indians, in which case the Japanese people will have to be adequately rewarded for their services? Suppose this event does happen and Japan gets some crumbs of bread in the form of a province or two British India, as her compensation, this would mean that India will then be ruled by two foreign powers instead of one. Ah! The hightmare of having two masters, the terror of a likelihood of the dream of a United India being shattered to peaces, the agony of double oppression, double repression and double exploitation, double press acts, double Rowlatt Acts, double Jhalianwalla Baugs etc. etc., Again I repeat, is it the warning of a true lover of India, or the threat of a Grand Old Mother ordering the naughty child to be meek and submissive at the risk of his being sent to the dormitory and punished marcilessly? With due reference and respect to her age and learning and her past services to India, I think the threat implied in Mrs. Besant's utterances is most damaging to the Indians cause. The world knows that Japan is more or less a militarist nation, we have had sufficient knowledge of her bona tides in article published some years ago in the pages of the modern Review under the head "The Far Eastern Bully." But considerable water has flown under the bridges since then. The late war and advent of the League of Nations have entirely changed the aspect of things. In spite of this, does Mrs. Besant entertain the fear that noble Albion would sink so low as to obtain the assistance of a bloodhound of militarism for the purpose of tearning to pieces the liberty of a country as helpless and as poor as lamb, and feast upon the flesh of its liberty? No. But halt. Will it be worthy of Britain to ask for and Japan to render such assistance? I think not. Nor do I think British diplomacy would be so mean and British might so meagre. Or again, it is a suggestion thrown out by the imperialist Mrs. Besant to the Government as token of her earnestness in cooperating with the latter? It was reported some time back that a similar though far milder suggestion to Government(and threat to theIndian people) was made by the some old lady advising the withdrawal of the Posts and Telegraphs. However at may be the cat is out of the bag. Mrs. Besant has appeared in true colours. The gauntlet has been thrown. Mrs. Besant, in making known her fears, has consciously or unconsciously, expressed her opinion, if we may so take it, that it is imposible for India to remain as one whole unit, except under the supremacy of the British. Let the well wisher of the future welfare of the country take this to heart. But let me not end this letter without making it clear that the true sprite of India cares precious little for such threats. India has had enough of foreign oppression in the past. And though she is not so foolish as to abandon rashly the advantages of the British connection immediately or in the near future; she is yet determined to have freedom and liberty in its true form. Let Indiadn qnote in unequivocal voice and act up to, the worlds of the old poet .....We drow no swords,

We kindle not war's battle fires,
By union, justice, reason law,
We claim the birth right of our sires.

Yours etc.,

REPLY TO MAULVI SHERWANI'S CHALLENGE.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—Maulvi Habib-ur Rahman Khan Sherwani a Trustee of Aligarh College has thrown the gauntlet before the Ulema of India demanding justification of Mahatma Gandhi's leadership of a religious movement.

Maulana Sherwani in excitement has committed himself that the movement is religious and as such, may I know what services he has done to his religion when in the capacity of a Trustee and head of Theological department of the Anglo Oriental College, Aligarh, he comes forward with this challenge.

If I mistake not Maulana was called upon to place his views on the Khilafat question before the public, but he found an escape-door in a plea that he had not studied the question.

Through the Press I want to make known to Maulana Sherwani that Mahatma Gandhi is at the head of the movement; he is one of the recognised leaders of Indian Musalmans because he extended to them a powerful helping hand at a time when Maulana and Muslims of his class where asleep. Gandhiji will work day and night for the Khilafat cause while Maulana Sherwani and his clique will again retire to their comfortable homes.

Gandhiji has not done anything so far against the commandments of the Holy Quran, and the Traditions of the Prophet. When he takes a new step he always consults Ulema like Shiekh-ul-Hind, Maulana Abdul-Bari Saheb, and Maulana Abdul Kalam Azad Saheb, No Muslim can, therefore, blame him for doing anything prejudicial to Muslim interests or feelings. I wish Muslim leaders who could muster strong to defend Government grant and disaffiliation from her University, had also come forward to defend Islam, Muslim civilization and culture, and above all Islamic Khilafat against the outrageous encroachment of the enemies of Islam.

It is easy to pass oneself for a Muslim, but to prove oneself is a difficult task. And "Have people taken into their heads that they will be let alone if only they say they are Muslims and that they will not be tested (as to their faith)?" (Quran.)

Let me assure all un-Muslim Trustees and un-Aligarh old and present boys that the National Muslim University founded in the vicinity of the Old Aligarh College will produce servants of God, Country, and faith and not servants of the bureaucratic Government as has hitherto been the chief function and pride of old Aligarh.

The life of the Prophet (peace and blessings of God be upon him and his family) is sufficient to guide us in all our deliberations and actions. In it we find ample material to support our reliance on Non-Moslem aid in religious affairs. The Prophet of God took refuge with Mut-i'm son of Adi and offered prayers in the Haram under the protection of Mut-im's sons who were all on them Mushriks and Kafirs (infidels.) On another occassion he hired Abdullah-bin-Arikat a reliablo Mushrik to serve him as a guide on his way to Medina while performing Hijrat; which is preeminently a religious matter. These two instances at least should teach us that Non-Muslims also can be relied upon in times of greatest peril and that their aid may be lawfully secured in critical moments.

"And they say: none, enters Paradise unless he be a Jew or a Christian. Those are their own desires. Say: Bring your proof top that which you assert if you are truthful "nay, but whosoever turns his face towards God while doing right, his reward is with his Lord; and there shall no fear come upon them, neither shall they suffer grief" (Coran.)

COL. WEDGWOOD IN AGRA

Triumphal arches had been erected at various points and much enthusiasm prevailed. After the meeting the distinguished guests were to be entertained at a dinner party given by Mr. Syed Allay Nabi, Chairman, Municipal Board, Agra, at his house in Shahgunj.

MATHERAN NOTES

WANTED BETTER LIGHTING

(From Our Correspondent.)

MATHERAN, Nov. 4.

The October season on this pictureseque hill is rolling on with a large number of incoming and outgoing pleasure-seekers of the Bombay Presidency. With the recent passing away of the monsoon, Nature in her full bloom is enchanting and the beautiful sunrise and the vivid sunset with its ever changing varied colours present a marvellous scene on the hills.

Some of the roads are still lying in a dilapidated condition. Boards are not fixed on some of the roads to the points and the other day I saw some of these in the market place. It is one month since the "season" began, I wonder how the Superintendent of the Municipality has not still seen his way to have these boards fixed at proper places. And I must say that the boards fixed on certain turnings are not sufficient, and more should be placed on more turnings for the guidance of travellers who hearing of the charms of the Hill are coming here in large numbers. A few benches for the fatigued visitors to distant points are placed here and there, but the Municipality has been very economical in this direction also. More benches are required because it happens many a time that one travels miles, but because a bench is occupied by somebody he does not find another bench to sit on till he travels a distance of a mile or sometimes even more than that. But the most scandalous thing about the Hill is that no lights are put on any roads, and sometimes new travellers, when they miss their paths at the evening time find it very difficult to get at their places. At least lights should be supplied on the main road from the station, because it is fairly well populated and there are a member of shops on the road. The Municipality of Matheran should at once direct its attention to this badly felt need of many a resident of the Hill. I understand that an experiment was tried to put lights on the main road some time back, but it failed because of want of finances. I do not known how far this is true, but if that is the reason I am sure the residents of Matheran will be too glad to bear the expenses of having such lights and pay a small extra tax for the same.

Violent riding, inspite of the threat of the Municipality to prosecute such persons, is widely prevalent and more vigilance on the part of the Municipality is necessary to bring such reckless riders to book.

causes which led the men to strike and the present situation of the deadlock.

RESOLUTION TO MOVE AGENT.

The following resolution was then unanimously carried:—

"That this meeting, of the Unions of the B. B. and C. I. and G. I. P. Railway, extends its cordial welcome to the Jhansi strikers' deputation and expresses its sympathy towards the demands of the Jhansi men who are on strike, and earnestly requests the Agent to bring about a satisfactory termination of the strike."

In putting the resolution to vote, Mr. Ginwalla said he assured Mr. Dhulekar that the Railwaymen of Bombay were ready to help their brethren at Jhansi in any way possible.

N. W. RLY. E. ENGINEER'S STAFF.

GONE ON STRIKE.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LAHORE, Nov 4.

About 1,200 workmen of the Headquarters of the Executive Engineer of the North Western Railway, Lahore struck work this morning. Their grievances are that they have not been given the promotion and increase in wages which have been given in other Departments of the Railway. The strikers are all members of the N. W. Railway Association, of which Mr. Miller is President. It seems that dissatisfaction has been growing among the men for some time as will be seen from the following resolution which was passed at a mass meeting of the N. W. Railway employee held outside Mochi Gan, Lahore on the 29th of October:— This meeting of Railway servants strongly protests against the action alleged to have been taken by the Executive Engineer Headquarters in reducing his present subordinate establishment instead of granting universal promotion to them. Such injudicious action would certainly strain the relations between employers and employees which, we warn the authorities, will not bring about good results.

END OF RANGOON TRAM BOYCOTT

PEOPLE'S UNITY CROWNED WITH SUCCESS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, Nov. 5.

The Rangoon trams boycott terminated to-day. Company reduces the fare to the previous level until the end of the year when further discussions will take place regarding the recently formed Conveyance Committee who organised boycott.

BOMBAY STRIKES.

RECRUDESCENCE OF HOOLIGANISM

NO RELIEF AS YET.

None of the Bombay strikes has come to an end as yet, and it seems they will unfortunately go on for a long time still.

TRAMWAY STRIKE.

There has been a recrudescence of hooliganism on the tramway lines. On Thursday night 3 cases of assault were reported to have taken place near the Byculla Bridge, at Sandhurst Road, and at the Parsee Statue, respectively. In the first case a number of hooligans got into a car going towards the Victoria Gardens and assaulted the conductor wounding his head. The second case occurred between Golpitha and the Prarthana Samaj where two conductors were assaulted and robbed of their collections. In the third case one more conductor was assaulted with sticks near the Parsee Statue. It is rumoured that the Tramway Company is contemplating the re-engaging the Pathan mercenaries. It appears that some of the Pathans too took part in the disturbances probably for the purpose of necessitating their re-employment.

There is no doubt that a slight improvement is being marked in the tram service for the past few days. But this improvement is very likely to have a reactionary effect as most of the men now driving cars and issuing tickets have been drawn from their repairing depots. Consequently repairing works are being considerably congested.

POSTAL STRIKE

Yesterday a general distribution of relief was made among the Postal and Telegraph strikers at the offices of the Postal Union.

Mr. Baptista is trying to make an opening for the strikers by starting a National Postal Service. In response to his public appeal many gentlemen have shown their readiness to help him every way in the matter.

FLOUR MILLS STRIKE ENDS

The strike of the flour-mill operatives has almost come to an end. At a meeting of the Flour Merchants' Association held on Thursday evening Mr. Deole discussed the matter on behalf of the strikers. But the merchants ultimately refused to meet any of their demands which they thought, were quite unjust and exorbitant. They informed the men that if they did not return to work before the 10th instant, the merchants would take steps to replace them. As a result of this attitude many workers resumed work yesterday.

JHANSI STRIKERS' GRIEVANCES.

DEPUTATION IN BOMBAY

REQUEST TO AGENT FOR AMICABLE SETTLEMENT

A general meeting of the members of the G. I. P. Railway and B. B. C. I. Railway Unions was held last evening at the Depressed Class Mission compound, Parel, for the purpose of meeting the deputation of Jhansi Railwaymen who are now on strike. Mr. F. J. Ginwalla presided, and about two thousand Railway workers attended the meeting. Messrs. R. V. Dhulekar and A. G. Kher, two members of the deputation, were present.

DIFFERENTIATION IN DEPTS.

Mr. Ginwalla at the outset said they all knew that the Jhansi deadlock had been going on for 21 days. The grievances of the men were that the Loco and Carriage Departments were getting fifteen days' privilege leave in a year, while the men working in the running Shed were denied it. Another grievance was that workers of the Loco and Carriage Departments were getting 12 hours' wages for working on Sunday, while the Running Shed men did not get it. They submitted their formulated demands to the superiors and then telegraphed to the Agent. The Agent went to Jhansi but returned even without hearing the men's case from them. Consequently they were obliged to go on strike.

Mr. Ginwalla then asked the audience if these demands of the Jhansi men were not just and the whole audience replied in the affirmative. Continuing he said that he had an interview with the Agent that day and the Agent assured him that he was willing to concede the first demand of the men, viz., 15 days' leave in a year. But as for the question of 12 hours' pay for working on Sunday, the Agent said that it was a mistake on the part of the Company and they were not going to repeat it. They would stop paying for 12 hours' wages for work on Sunday and would increase their monthly wages by three per cent. instead.

WAR ALLOWANCE TO BE STOPPED?

Regarding the grievances of the clerks, the Agent was said to have stated that hitherto they were being given a ten per cent. war allowance. But it was to be stopped when their revised scale of pay came in force. But the clerks protested against that. There was another point of disagreement and it was that the clerks wanted the revised scale to have retrospective effect from April 1919 while the Agent insisted upon September, 1919. The matter was however referred to the Home Board and the Railway Board and the Agent desired him (Mr. Ginwalla) to ask the men to wait for a week.

Mr. Dhulekar then explained at length the

UNITY IN DIVERSITY.

When the political atmosphere in India is surcharged with the apparently divergent views of Moderates and Nationalists and of Cooperation and Non-cooperation, it may interest our readers if we make a survey of the situation, analysing the origin, growth and seemingly contradictory ideas regarding the modus operandi for attaining India's national goal, Swaraj or complete Self-government. We do not recognise any material difference in the goal of this national aspiration, nor does it exist. Whatever difference there may be, is as to the means of working out the political destiny of the nation; and such difference there must be as a necessary condition of the evolutionary progress of that nation. What, in the first place, is a nation? A nation is not a chance collocation of individuals, races, tribes or sects living in a particular geographical unit, nor does the domination of a particular set of people over certain groups make for the homogeneity of a nation; a nation is essentially a state of mind, a community of feeling which binds together various people for one ultimate goal. As in all organic growths, so in the domain of the human mind—and "minds of men are widened by the process of the sun"—conflict or clash of interest must co-exist with harmony. Now, conflict in the struggle for existence is the most essential condition of all evolution and brings in its train annihilation of the unfit or uncompromisable elements or molecular combinations, as well as isolated ideas which have not enough potentiality or force to outlive the gathering forces of other sets of ideas. Thus some forces or mental factors combine in unity of strength against or in contradistinction to another set of ideas which become effete owing to want of strength of support or lack of combination and so die out. Everything, therefore, depends on the power to gather forces round them belonging to certain molecular combinations in the physical world, and certain sets of ideas in the mental world. Therefore power of gathering forces and adaptability to circumstances are the determinative factors in the success or survival of either set of ideas or molecular growth. Before examining the power of gathering forces, which ultimately leads to the success or otherwise of an idea or set of ideas, we would point out that there is no idea of absolutism involved in the connotation of the word cooperation. It is a term implying non cooperation, that is to say, certain ideas go against certain other ideas and in the process of evolution certain verities or truths survive, leaving the rest to die a natural death.

Now coming to existing circumstances in this country; we have primarily four factors with their particular connotations or qualifications. In the first place, there stands the Government of the country with their past record of deeds, good, bad and indifferent, the merit or demerit of their administration, with the bureaucratic temperament which seeks to guide the destiny of the nation with lip-sympathy for Indian aspirations. In the second place, there are the Cooperationists who honestly believe that only by cooperation with the Government of the country, can India's liberation be secured. In this faith they have their own ideas of its success according to the circumstances of the country. In the third place, the necessarily pessimistic non-cooperationists, who, seeing the helpless situation of the people and the broken pledges of the Government, believe that only by dissociation from the governing body can they force it to allow them to become a self-respecting nation. They have resorted to a method of non-violent non-cooperation as the last and only weapon available to fight out this religious war of nationalism, with clear vision of the facts. It has been alleged that sentiment has got the better of their discretion, but, as history shows, the moral force of such a sentiment for the political salvation of a country is a factor of success. The fourth and the last factor is a combination of anaemic "softies" who would rather not commit themselves to any principle with the illiterate mass which takes little or no interest in the problem.

As already indicated, the Government of the country, being alien, stands aloof from the votaries, whether of cooperation or of non-cooperation; yet is dependent on the moral support of the nation. Now the national mind being divided on the question of support, it remains to be seen what forces naturally gather round either cooperation or non-cooperation. The feeling in the country is intense and even the most optimistic Indian realises in his heart of hearts that he is no better than a slave in his own country. The difference in procedure in working out the destiny of the nation will, therefore, in the process of mental evolution vanish like the Cheshire cat. When political thinkers come to scrutinise it calmly, then will dawn the day of India's liberty. In the meantime, due regard for the honest opinion of political opponents must be shown, though at times it may involve considerable self-control. The goal is one, and that will have to be attained at any sacrifice, and by sinking all differences at the psychological moment.

SILENCE!

The disturbance at Mrs. Besant's lecture on Wednesday, when she spoke upon Co-operation, and the uproar which broke up the meeting at her Thursday lecture, of which the subject was Non-cooperation, suggest some serious reflections to the patriotic mind. For such absurd, undignified proceedings serve no purpose except to prejudice the minds of people who may still be hesitating against the very cause the noisy ones profess to champion. Mr. Gandhi is the acknowledged leader of the Non-cooperation Movement, and he, as everybody knows, is not a friend to rowdyism. In relation to Mrs. Besant, it was he who at the National Congress insisted on that lady being given a fair hearing, although she was opposing his policy tooth and nail. His disciplined followers must observe his teaching and example. A certain type of mind will always think that if a crowd of persons can be brought by a word of command to a particular place at a certain time for a certain purpose, that is discipline; but such a view is to degrade the meaning of the word. Discipline in the higher sense, the sense in which it must be used in movements which possess a high ideal, means the eschewing of all selfish and mean motives in the service of that ideal and obedience to the will of the acknowledged leader. The gathering of any number of persons to a certain place for a purpose contrary to his teaching, however unanimous and obedient to command the mob may be, is rank indiscipline, which in the course of time would ruin any movement. Such "patriots" are indeed the worst allies that any movement can possess. We do not wish our readers to imagine that the scenes on Wednesday and Thursday were unique, or that they are any worse than have occurred in other countries. Much worse disturbances at public meetings have occurred in England, especially during the war. Indeed we should say that such disturbances are European and not Asiatic; Asia having been till now quite free from such vulgarity. But disturbances in other countries have always been the work of friends of tyranny against the friends of freedom and the rights of man; as such they are regarded by the general public; and their use in a progressive movement cannot fail to produce a wrong impression of that movement in the public mind. "Empty kettles make the most noise", an old English proverb says, and another proverb says that still waters run deep; and it is a fact that noisy movements, marked by cheap disturbance, quickly pass, while silent movements, of a purpose far too deep to deal in useless, vulgar demonstrations, come to power. The two great movements of the twentieth century which have succeeded were both silent movements, marked by no disorder, and almost unknown to outsiders till their sudden trumph shook the world; and both had ready a complete and practicable system of self-government.

Notes of the Day.

A Crown and a Swelled Head.

We cull the following interesting flower of news from "L'Illustration":—

"On Monday last, the 27th September, the festival in memory of the defence of old Byzantium by the Greeks against the Persians began at Athens. The first item in the programme was the presentation to M. Venizelos of a crown of gold of pure antique design. . . . It was presented at a banquet to which two thousand mayors of all the towns and communes of Greece had been invited. He replied in a long speech. He is said to have confided to his friends that the crown, which was too precious for a man like him, would be placed in the treasury of St. Sophia on the day when the Metropolitan Church of Greek Orthodoxy should be restored to Gospel worship, which has been the hope of Greek Christians for five centuries."

It is evident that Eastern Christianity has not advanced in that religious tolerance which is the thing of greatest worth in modern civilisation, since it can eagerly contemplate committing in the twentieth century an act of intolerance which was regarded as usual in the fifteenth century. The Turks would never turn a church into a mosque to-day. And what have the Allies to say to a prognostication which aims at the destruction of their famous Turkish "settlement"?

"The Counter-jumpers."

Every decent European in this country will deplore the behaviour of a few rowdies who, on the occasion of the Bombay Presidency Association Dinner in honour of Colonel and Mrs. Wedgwood at the Taj Mahal Hotel, began to hoot and interrupt from behind the partition, when Colonel Wedgwood was replying to the toast of the evening. The elementary civil rights of free speech and respect for other's opinion are acknowledged to be the virtues of modern civilzed races, and lack of manners in making due allowances for others' ideals, only shows want of education and decent upbringing. The offence becomes more inexcusable as it was a private dinner party and several ladies were present. As Colonel Wedgwood says—"When the people dining are Indians and the cads are Europeans, it is gross impertinence"—and we would leave it at that. O tempora, o mores!

Reply to charge of Political Insobriety.

We extremely regret to note that at Thursday's meeting of the Parsi community on the occasion of the fifth anniversary of the late Sir Pherozeshah Mehta, Sir Dinshaw Edulji Wacha, the revered leader, after referring to the unique services rendered to the country by the illustrious Parsi could so forget himself as to denounce in the most uncompromising tone the present day political "agitators" whom he compared with "the drunkards, who created mischief when they were under the influence of liquor." By the present day political "agitators," we understand those Nationalists who are trying to attain the National goal in a way different from the Moderates who had seceded from the Indian National Congress in 1917—the party to which Sir Dinshaw belongs. Certainly Sir Dinshaw at his age is expected to know that representatives of each party are entitled to their opinion so long as it is an honest opinion. Differences we must have and we are bound in courtesy to respect such differences, apart from the intrinsic merit or the logical issue of a question. And it serves no useful purpose to denounce in the violent language that Sir Dinshaw used one set of political thinkers, which does not see eye to eye with another set of thinkers. A little more restraint in speech would have been more befitting the dignity of his position and his wisdom; and with all due respect, we must point out that since the death of the Chamber politics of Esplanade Road, which ruled the Presidency Politics under the towering personality of the late Sir Pherozeshah Mehta and his illustrious colleagues of whom Sir Dinshaw was one, the tide of Nationalism has set in, public opinion has become vocal and public men are eagerly seeking for an immediate release from the position of being slaves in their own country. Political self-consciousness has been awakened, and people, tired of broken pledges and unfulfilled hopes would no longer be marshalled under the banner of the Wait-and-See's of India's politics. If the younger generation of people are not always discreet in their activities, why not be with them, give them the benefit of your experience and thus keep under healthy restraint their exuberance of feeling instead of leaving the great national institution simply for the sake of stewing in your own juice? Nothing will stem the tide of nationalism which in its flow will sweep everything before it, and traducers and detractors will meet the fate of Goldsmith's Mad Dog—

"But soon a wonder came to light
That showed the rogues they lied
The man recovered of the bite
The dog it was that died."

Difference in Perspective.

The world is aware of the righteous indignation of Mr. Asquith at the present repressive policy of the Coalition Government in Ireland and the bold liberal policy outlined by him for the governance of that country, such as Dominion Home Rule without any reservations. That he has honestly expressed his opinion no one will deny, but one would like to know all the same if he has really begun to think so seriously on account of his sincere convictions or whether he is using it as a plank in the political platform In 1920 speaking from the Opposition Front Bench, even the simple Mr. John Morley in reply to Mr. Secretary Brodrick denounced the deportation of a Britisher, one Mr. Cartright of Cape Town, from South Africa without a trial in most scathing terms; but nine years later the same Mr. Morley, as Secretary of State for India, supported the arbitrary action of the Government of India in the deportation of Lala Lajpat Rai without a trial. We mention this as we remember that Mr. Asquith, as the responsible head of the British Government, speaking in the House of Commons on May 11, 1916, denounced the nationalistic aspirations of the Sinn Feiners and instead of then evoiving a constructive practical scheme suitable to the temper of the people, condoned many repressive measures, though not to the extent that is now being done. In 1916, he saw no excuse for the disturbances in Ireland, because, forsooth, he was himself responsible for non-solution of the tangle. He said:—

"Do not let our sympathies be entirely monopolised by the unfortunate and misguided victims of this unhappy and criminal rebellion. Let us observe some sense of proportion. I speak with infinite regret—because I think it is the most deplorable and disastrous chapter in the history of Ireland—both of the losses upon the one side and of the necessary punishments that have had to be inflicted upon the other, but I cannot, when I am told by my hon. friend (Mr. Dillon) that this rebellion has been drenched in a sea of blood, blind myself, nor can any fair-judging man of right principle blind himself, to the extent and gravity of the terrible, wanton, inexcusable and unprovoked injury which has been inflicted upon both the military and the civil population."

Hence one is forced to the conclusion that there is difference between an official perspective and the perspective of the honest man-in-the-street.

Fighting Profiteering.

Life is getting stiffer and stiffer. Thanks to unchecked profiteering, it is increasingly difficult for the man of moderate means, to make both ends meet. The greed of the merchants is robbing the "humble" of their daily bread, but still the authorities refuse to raise a finger on their behalf. Distress has been caused all over the country, but the Government remains adamant. Petitions and protests having failed to arouse officialdom, it is up to the public to take the matter in their own hands. In England they are sucessfully solving the problem of prices by boycotting the profiteer. In Burma, to-day, the citizens are engaged in a similar fight. The efficacy of boycott is generally acknowledged, and it is really worth while to try it here.

Christ and Boycott.

Apropos it is interesting that Christ himself has suggested boycott. In the eighteenth chapter of Matthew, we read:—

Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go, and tell him his fault between thee and him alone; if he shall hear thee, thou has gained thy brother.

But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.

And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it upto the Church: but if he neglect to hear the Church, let him be unto thee as an heathen man and a publican.

Replying in Commons to Mr. Clough Col. Amery stated that 115,369 British subjects had removed from the United Kingdom to other parts of the Empire in 1919 and 97,916 during the first two quarters of 1920. Col. Amery suggested that the word 'emigration' with the implied suggestion of 'expatriation' by individual and a loss by the community he leaves should be confined to the foreign countries and the movement within the Empire he described by some such term as oversea settlement.

Polling was held yesterday in about three hundred Municipalities in England and Wales for the election of one-third of the Councillors to replace those who retire this year. The Chief feature of the contests hitherto has been the disappointments of the Labour Party, who ran a very large number of candidates, only a small percentage of whom have been returned while the Independents standing for the most part as rate-reducers have considerably increased their strength.

MORE SINN FEIN OUTRAGES.

ANOTHER OUTBREAK OF REPRISALS.

TOWN OF TRALEE TERROR-STRICKEN

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 1-15 p.m., Nov. 5.

Another long list of outrages was reported from Ireland yesterday and several more police and soldiers were killed and wounded. The chief event was the ambush of a military lorry near Youghal in which one soldier was killed and two were wounded and eight disarmed.

There was an outbreak of reprisals at Tralee following the shooting of a policeman. Men in uniform went through the streets firing and breaking windows. One civilian was shot dead and one was wounded. Tralee is terror-stricken owing to notices having been posted up threatening reprisals such as Ireland has not yet heard of unless two policemen, who have disappeared return.

REPORTS OF INCREASING OUTRAGES

3 CONSTABLES KILLED: MORE WOUNDED

LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 11-30 p.m., Nov. 5.

Outrages continue to be reported in an intensified form from Ireland. To-day's batch, up to the present, gives three constables killed and a number wounded. Several further attempts were made without success. The court-house and the police-barracks in two centres were destroyed.

In the case of one murder at Limerick, the constable left the barracks to go to a village, and did not return. His dead body was found the next morning in a drain half naked. Dublin and the environs were again raided last night, and one arrest was made.

THE REPRISALS POLICY.

The question of the condition of Ireland was again raised in the House of Commons, this afternoon, when Mr. O'Connor attempted to obtain another debate on the reprisals policy, but was unsuccessful.

Sir Hamar Greenwood, replying to Mr. O'Connor, said that a number of murders had taken place also disturbances consequent on the search for criminals. He had called for reports, but in most cases the telegraph wires had been cut by criminals. He added that the police were in a state of great indignation, following upon the assassination of their comrades.

DENUNCIATION BY LORD LOREBURN

RESOLUTION FOR SELF-GOVERNMENT REJECTED

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.
Recd. 1-35 p.m., Nov. 5.

In the House of Lords, Lord Loreburn moved a resolution condemning the Sinn Fein murders denouncing the policy of reprisals and urging creation of a complete measure of self-government for Ireland, including fiscal autonomy, but reserving to the Imperial Parliament, control of the Army, the Navy and foreign affairs.

In the course of the debate the Archbishop of Canterbury severely condemned the reprisals which besmirched the repudiation of England.

Lord Curzon said he had nothing to add to the recent Government statements. He pointed out the defects of Lord Loreburn's scheme of fiscal autonomy. It was the immoderate men, who were in an overwhelming majority in Ireland and he asked what was the good of offering concessions which would only satisfy the Moderates when the majority wanted an Independent Republic.

Lord Loreburn's resolution was rejected by 44 votes to 13.

FRANCE TO BURY AN UNKNOWN SOLDIER.

REPRESENTATIVES TO LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 12-30 p.m., Nov. 5.

Paris.—The Cabinet has decided to introduce a Bill authorising the burial of an unknown soldier in the Pantheon.

M. M. Bourgecis, Honotaux and Viviani have been appointed to represent France at the Assembly of the League of Nations at Geneva.

BURYING OF UNKNOWN WARRIOR.

DETAILS OF THE CEREMONY AND THE INSCRIPTION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 1-15 p.m., Nov. 5.

It has now been arranged that the body of the unknown warrior, who will be buried in Westminster Abbey, on the 11th will be conveyed to England by the destroyer Verdun on the 10th and repose in a temporary chapel at Victoria overnight. The inscription on the coffin will be:—"A British warrior who fell in Great War 1914/18 for the King and the Country."

VENEZELOS V. CONSTANTINE.

CHOICE OF NEW KING.

RESTS WITH NEW NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.
Recd. 12-30 p.m., Nov. 5.

Athens.—The main issue in the forthcoming Greek elections will be M. Venezelos versus ex-King Constantine. The opposition appears elated at the action of the Government in allowing the question of return of the ex-King to be raised. On the other hand, M. Venezelists regard it as a very clever move on the part of the Premier for whom the majority seems assured.

In view of Prince Paul's refusal of the Throne the choice of the new King rests with the new National Assembly but the name most prominently mentioned as successor is that of Prince Charles the second son of the King of the Belgians.

INDIA'S NEXT VICEROY.

CHANCES OF MR. AUSTEN CHAMBERLAIN'S APPOINTMENT.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAMS.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 12-30 p.m., Nov. 5.

The "Daily Telegraph's" Parliamentary correspondent says:—It is understood that the Government has received definite indications from India that Mr. Austen Chamberlains appointment as Viceroy would be most popular. It is stated on excellent authority, however, that it is most unlikely he would accept the offer being a family man and therefore unwilling to leave England. He also does not desire to interrupt his political career.

REFUNDING OVERPAID ALLOWANCES.

HARDSHIPS OF INDIAN ARMY OFFICERS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Nov. 5.

Replying to Mr. Pretyman, Mr. Montagu said he was aware that in certain cases very great hardships had been caused to the Indian Army officers by deductions of pay for refund of the allowances overpaid to the officers while on service. The India Office had always done its best to help and he promised again to investigate the question.

Recd. 9-30 a.m., Nov. 5.

Replying to Col. Yate who urged that a deposit should be required from each candidate for election to the Legislative Councils in India in a similar way to practise in the United Kingdom, Mr. Montagu expressed the opinion that we should wait to see if there were any frivolous nominations.

GOVT. OF INDIA'S PENSIONERS

QUESTION OF INCREASING PENSION.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.
Recd. 12 noon, Nov. 5.

Replying in the House of Commons to Col. Yate who urged an increase in the pensions of the Government of India's pensioners, Mr. Fisher stated that Mr. Montagu was considering with the Government of India the question of granting to their pensioners in the United Kingdom and India some relief to meet the extra cost of living, but he feared it was very improbable that any relief given would extend to the officers receiving incomes exceeding the maxima fixed under the Pensions Increase Act, 1920, in the case of the pensioners of the Imperial Government.

GOVERNMENT SERVANTS AND ELECTIONS.

ORDER OF NON-INTERFERENCE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Nov. 5.

In reply to Col. Yate and Sir Joynson Hicks who asked questions with regard to the orders to the Government servants in India not to interfere in the elections, Mr. Montagu emphasised that non-interference was in the interest of the service itself and there were many opportunities of helping the new Constitution other than such interference.

Eillen Elsa Ryan, the wife of Dennis Ryan, a coolie recruiter, Madras, applied today for a divorce from her husband on the ground of cruelty. The petitioner who is the daughter of Major Lloyd, Pension Paymaster, Fort St George, was married to the respondent on the 30th of August last at St Thomas Cathedral Madras. The honeymoon was spent in Cooncor. During the honeymoon itself it was stated that the petitioner was illtreated and subseqnently illtreatment became worse. Witnesses were examined including Dr. Gibson and Mrs. Lloyd and Mr. Justice Phillips granted a "decree nisi."

NEW ARAB GOVT. IN MESPOT.

INCREASE OF LEVIES URGED.

FOR RELEASING BRITISH TROOPS.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 9-30 a.m., Nov. 5.

Replying in the House of Commons to Mr. Ormsby Gore, Col. Yate and Commander Kenworthy, Mr. Montagu who returned to the House to-day said he hoped the new Arab Government in Mesopotamia would take immediate steps to increase the Arab levies with a view to releasing the British troops, but he understood that hitherto the efforts of the British officers had been concentrated on training efficiently a small nucleus Arab army rather than getting together numbers of troops which it would be impossible to train efficiently. (Cheers.)

SIR PERCY COX'S DETAILS OF ADMINISTRATION.

COMPOSITION OF COUNCIL OF STATE.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.
Recd. 2.15 p.m., Nov. 5.

In the course of his reply to Sir Donald Maclean in the House of Commons regarding Mesopotamia, Mr. Bonar Law said that a telegraphic appreciation of the situation had been received from Sir Percy Cox. He said that a Committee of about thirty ex-Deputies was framing the electoral law for the creation of a representative Congress of all sections of the people. The draft law would be completed very shortly but it would be a considerable time before the elections could be completed and a decision reached on the fundamental issues. Meanwhile, in order to meet the immediate requirements of the situation the High Commissioner had adopted the following purely provisional measures:—

The Naqib of Bagdad had been invited to form a Council of State with himself as President for the conduct of the administration until a National Assembly could decide the future form of Government. The Council of State which would be the representative of the whole country would consist of seventeen or eighteen members of whom eight, in addition to the Naqib would hold portfolios for the administration of the existing departments subject to the guidance of the High Commissioner. The following Ministers were to be appointed by the Naqib:—Finance, Justice, Pious Foundations, Education, Defence, Public Works and Commerce. He understood that the Naqib had asked the following to accept office in the Provisional Government:—Saiyid Talib Pasha of Basrah, Sassoon Effendi Haskall, an official of Ottoman Government before war, Hassan Pachachi, the leading lawyer of Bagdad, Mustapha Alusi the ex-Qadhi of Mecca, Izzat Pasha of Kirkuk, Jaafar Pasha Major.-General in Emir Feisuls Army, Muhammad Fadhli Mayor of Mosul and Abdullah Pasha al Mandil, a leading merchant of Basrah. The remaining Councillors would include a leading Christian of Bagdad and one of Mosul, a prominent Kurd of Sulaimaniyah, the head of the Shiah family in Bagdad and two influential Sheikhs of the settled Shiah tribes.

The distribution of the portfolios would be reported later. The High Commissioner had acted in this way after visits to the Vilayets of Basrah, Bagdad and Mosul when he had interviewed all the important Sheikhs and leaders of opinion both publicly in durbar and privately separately to whom he explained the Government's policy and objects of his mission.

Replying to the request for an opportunity for a debate Mr. Bonar Law said it would be desirable to await the written communication from Sir Percy Cox.

MESOPOTAMIAN GARRISON.

CALCULATION OF EXTRA COST DESIRABLE.

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.
Recd. 12 noon, Nov. 5.

Replying in the House of Commons to Mr. Locker Lampson with regard to the expenditure in Mesopotamia, Mr. Churchill referred to his answer of October 27th and added that it seemed desirable to have a calculation made of extra cost of the Mesopotamian garrison. He thought that a supplementary estimate would not be required this year, as sufficient money was available for carrying on at present and there had been considerable economics in the other branches of the service.

The Shah has accepted the resignation of Starosselsky, who left Teheran for Bagdad whence, it is understood, he will proceed to France. One of the principal obstacles to the working of the Anglo-Persian Agreement has been removed by the departure of Starosselsky, who for the last eighteen months, has done his utmost to keep the old Imperial flag of Russia flying in Northwest Persia.

TRUTH ABOUT BATTLE OF JUTLAND.

REPORTS AND DESPATCHES TO BE PUBLISHED.

(REUTER'S SPECIAL SERVICE.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.
Recd. 2.15 p.m., Nov. 5.

The keen desire of the public to know the truth about the Battle of Jutland is at length to be satisfied. The controversy has raged for a long time amongst the naval experts regarding the strategy applied and the reason for withholding the publication of official reports which were supposed to disclose how far Lord Jellicoe was justified in his tactics has been somewhat of a mystery. It was recently stated that a belated official account would be published after the appearance of the first volume of Sir Julian Corbett's forthcoming Naval History of the War and later that the Admiralty had decided against publication. Yesterday Mr. Lloyd George under pressure of public opinion told the House of Commons that the Government was willing to publish all the reports and despatches and leave the public to judge. The announcement was received with cheers.

A Council of State representing all parts of the country had been established for the administration of the country.

REPUBLICANS RETURN TO POWER.

AFTER EIGHT YEARS' WEARY WAITING

COMPOSITION OF NEW CABINET

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 6 p.m., Nov. 5.

Whatever little doubt existed with regard to the outcome of the United States Presidential election has now disappeared by the sweeping victory of Senator Harding. His party returns to power after eight years. The Republicans carried the eastern states by enormous majorities and also captured Ohio in itself an achievement almost sufficient to ensure victory.

The Democrats principal successes were in Kentucky, West Virginia and Tennessee. Women voters had a big say in the elections and in many places outnumbered the men. The President designate's triumph came as the most splendid event possible to celebrate his fifty-fifth birthday. Other candidates were the Prohibitionist, Farmer-Labour champion and Socialist Debs who is undergoing ten years' imprisonment in the state penitentiary for violation of Espionage Law.

Speculation is already busy with regard to the composition of the Republican Cabinet. It is pretty certain that Mr. Hoover the famous international food controller will assume a portfolio while Mr. Elihu Root is public favourite for the State Secretaryship, although his acceptance of it is questionable. Mr. Myron Herrick, former Ambassador in Paris will probably replace Mr. Davis in London.

VOTING FOR PRESIDENTIAL ELECTIONS

REPUBLICAN'S ENORMOUS MAJORITIES

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.
Recd. 6 p.m., Nov. 5.

New York.—The promised Republican landslide is hourly materialising. Senator Harding has up to the present secured 275 votes, namely nine more than the number necessary for election. The majority promises to be unprecedented. The Republicans claim a decisive majority in both houses of Congress and contend that they have gained at least eight seats in the Senate, where they had formerly a precarious majority of one.

VICTORY OF SENATOR HARDING

"A PLAIN ORDINARY FELLOW"

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 6 p.m., Nov. 5.

Marion.—(Ohio). Senator Harding is stated not to be exultant over his victory, but to be more inclined to pray to God to make him capable of playing his part The victory is not personal but is the renewed expression of confident Americanism and the national call to the Republican Party.

Senator Harding intends to take an immediate vacation trip to Isabel (Texas) and later to the Panama. Replying to the committee of his newspaper who made him a presentation Senator Harding with tears running down his cheeks said he was going to be honest with everybody in the world. He was just a plain ordinary fellow, but he could square in all his dealings.

LOANS FOR FAMINE RELIEF IN CHINA

POWERS AGREE TO SUR-TAXES

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 2.
Recd. 6 p.m., Nov. 5.

Peking.—Following on the Banks' old consortium informing the Government that they had referred to new consortium government's suggestion that they should grant a loan for famine relief of twelve-million dollars secured on the proposed surtaxes, Government have replied that they do not recognise the new consortium to which one of the main objections appears to be that the Chinese banks do not like industrial loans to be included in the scope of the new consortium. Most Power have already agreed to the proposed surtaxes and the agreement of others is expected shortly. All stipulate that the period of surtaxes shall not exceed one year.

IS GLASGOW TO GO DRY?

ALTERNATIVES BEFORE VOTERS

(REUTER'S TELEGRAM.)
LONDON, Nov. 3.
Recd. 6 p.m., Nov. 5.

Glasgow is given over to an orgy of oratory on the eve of the poll under the Temperance Act, which will be declared to-morrow. The voters' alternatives are:—1st. No Change. 2nd. licence, Twenty-five per cent limitation of existing and 3rd. No license at all. The majority must include 35 per cent of the electorate to alter the existing conditions. Trade is utilising novel methods of propaganda including aeroplanes which distribute leaflets counselling electors to favour no change. Nevertheless it is expected that at least one-third of Glasgow will go dry.

Voting is also taking place in Aberdeen and Inverness to-day. Voting in Edinburgh will take place in December. Drunkenness in Glasgow is admittedly bad, the usual practice being to consume repeated half-gills of neat whisky followed by a glass of beer.

MRS. BESANT'S LECTURES

DISGRACEFUL ROWDYISM

MR. JAMNADAS' STRONG PROTEST

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Sir,—I need no apology for craving the indulgence of your readers on a matter which seems to be of vital importance, so far as our public life is concerned. To all lovers of liberty, the disgraceful happenings at Mrs. Besant's public lectures in the Excelsior Theatre must have caused acute pain. At the outset, I want to correct a slight inaccuracy in the report of Mrs. Besant's first lecture in a local paper. She is reported to have said that she admired Mr. Gandhi. Mrs. Besant never said this, because as she told me afterwards, she objected to resorting to the present-day common-place tactics adopted by some, of endeavouring to propitiate the audience by professing admiration for a popular person whose policy they have to condemn.

Now coming to the points I desire to put forward, the meetings were held under the auspices of the Bombay Branch of the National Home Rule League of which I have the honour to be the President. They were held not for the purpose of giving expression to any opinion on behalf of the public, but to enable the President of the League, Mrs Besant, to express her views on a subject which is agitating the country. The League gave to those, who desired to hear her, an opportunity to do so. No gentlemen would have stooped to abuse this courtesy and howl down the lecturer who had come down to Bombay specially for the purpose of placing before the public her views on the question. As a matter of fact, no free people would ever prevent the humblest of speakers from putting forward his or her views on a subject. Mrs Besant never compelled anyone to agree with her. Are the arguments for Non-cooperation so weak and groundless that Mr. Gandhi's followers amidst the shouts of "Gandhi-ki jai, should prevent a great speaker like Mrs. Besant from placing the other side of the question, for fear, perhaps, that she might be able to convince them? For, I have reason to suspect that the hooliganism displayed at the meetings was pre-organised by a few cowards who call themselves Mr. Gandhi's followers. Are they aware that in trying in this cowardly manner, to defeat Mrs. Besant they have dealt a blow to Mr. Gandhi's professions of the peaceful character of his propaganda?

We have for many years past rightly complained of the tyranny of bureaucrats in encroaching upon the right of free speech. But the tyranny of Mr. Gandhi's followers in howling down a speaker who happens honestly to differ from him is worse in character than the tyranny of the bureaucrats. Mr. Gandhi claims perfect liberty of conscience, and, for its sake, would stand alone against the whole world. Conscience is not Mr. Gandhi's monopoly. Others have it too; and one who has grown grey in the service of India, whose love for her adopted Motherland is not less, if not greater, than the greatest patriot India has ever produced, who has toiled and suffered for India, whose services in many religious, educational, social and political, form record, who at the age of 73 works harder than any living Indian, notwithstanding the fact that the hatred against her as a foreign body is manifested by crowds of youths wherever she goes—one of whom it can be rightly said that the very people for whom she has worked and is working to win the Crown of Liberty are rewarding her with the Crown of Thorns, such a one as Mrs. Besant has a right not only to be given a patient but a courteous and respectful hearing.

And yet to the shame of those who misbehaved at the Theatre, and of us, all, Indians, Mrs. Besant was given this ignominious treatment. If this is the result of Mr. Gandhi's propaganda, then no honest and self-respecting Indian can do better than set his heart to work against it. I wonder what attitude Mr. Gandhi will take up, when placed in an awkward position. I have observed with pain that he has no hesitation in calling to his support the wonderful elasticity of his conscience. He may excuse himself by saying as he has already said, that if his message is not properly understood by the people, he is not responsible for their actions. But he was warned that the people would not understand and by the results of his last year's Satyagraha campaign while we absolved him from responsibility then, because he was trying a new experiment and admitted that he had made Himalayan miscalculations, he cannot escape the responsibility for what is happening now and what is likely to happen in the near future. There are clear indications of the fact, that erstwhile Apostle of Love has transformed himself into a generator of the forces of hate, not only between Englishmen and Indians, but Indians and Indians.

I appeal to all honest leaders of public opinion whatever be their politics, to publicly enter their emphatic protest against the introduction of this new form of tyranny which threatens to undermine respect for all codes of public morality. If this is not done in time, I am afraid, instead of freedom we shall only win slavery.—Yours, etc.

JAMNADAS DWARKADAS.

NON-COOPERATION

SIR C. SETALVAD'S VIEWS

'REMOVE ROOT CAUSE OF PRESENT TROUBLE."

Interviewed by a Press representative, on Friday, about the disturbances at Mrs. Besant's lectures at the Excelsior Theatre, Sir Chimanlal H. Setalvad said:—

We had fuly expected what happened at yesterday's meeting. In fact, a threat was openly given at the close of the meeting on Wednesday that, the next day's meeting would be made impossible. And a group of young men, about a hundred, had occupied the dress circle and other small groups of five or ten had stationed themselves at various points in the rest of the Theatre. These young men kept on stamping their feet and umbrellas heavily on the floor, and whistling and shouting and at an interval of every two or three minutes, kept repeating "Gandhiki Jai." There was an overwhelming number of people who resented their tactics, and who were anxious to hear Mrs. Besant but they were, rightly, not willing to follow the example of the rowdy element and bring about a conflict. I am indeed very glad at the exhibition the Non-Cooperationists made of themselves yesterday. For it conclusively demonstrates the certain dangers and disastrous consequences of the propaganda of Non-Cooperation. This was a meeting called not for passing any resolutions or expressing any opinions in the name of the public. Mrs. Besant was only going to express her views on Non-Co-operation. Such people as hated Mrs. Besant, or her views on the subject, need not have come to the meeting at all. If they cared to come ,good manners and fairness required that they should keep quiet and allow Mrs. Besant to address the meeting. But they had come determined to shout down the lecturer and break up the meeting and prevent those who differed from them to give expression to their views.

MR. GANDHI'S PROGRAMME MUST LEAD TO DISASTER.

We have been crying against the supression of liberty of speech and freedom of the Press by Government, by means of the Press Act, the Seditious Meetings Act and similar legislation. But if what happened yesterday is an indication under the Swaraj that Mr. Gandhi is going to achieve in a few months there will be a complete suppression of liberty of speech. At any rate, the first means these workers for immediate Swaraj employ is to stop the mouth of all those who differ from them. I wonder whether Mr. Gandhi feels proud of those followers of his who, shouting his "jey," yesterday, prevented Mrs. Besant from expressing her views. There is nothing surprising in this. Those who committed arson and murdered innocent men during the disturbances of 1919 did so crying "Gandhiki jai." I have no doubt that, the programme of Non-Cooperation started by Mr. Gandhi would lead the country into disaster. But I feel sure that the commonsense of the public would in the end prevail and they would realise the impracticability and mischief of the programme. But before this happens, a lot of mischief will be done by reason of the intense hatred that is being created not only between Indians and Europeans but between Indians themselves and by the neglect of the great opportunities for administration and directing policy that are placed in the hands of the people under the Reform Scheme.

Taking tangible items in Mr. Gandhi's programme the only one that is adopted in a measure in certain parts of the country is the boycott of the New Councils. This really requires no sacrifice at all. On the contrary, it saves the Non Cooperationists the time and trouble they would otherwise have been obliged to devote to the Councils. It is noteworthy that at the All-India Trade Union Congress, Lala Lajpatrai and others who favour boycott of Councils, joined in resolutions demanding Council representation for labour and sending a deputation to wait upon the Governor and for labour legislation. The item about lawyers giving up their practice has miserably failed A few people that can be counted on one's fingers' end have given up their practice and among them are some who have made their pile for many years, on which not only themselves but their sons and grandsons can live comfortably.

BOYCOTT OF SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES.

The third item is of Boycott of existing schools and colleges and the way in which young students have been brought into the vortex of agitation is the most dangerous and mischievous. More than 12 crores of rupees every year is being spent from public funds on educational institutions in the country, and many crores have been spent on capital expenditure in providing buildings, libraries and laboratories out of public funds and generous donations The money so expended on capital charges and maintenance charges is people's money provided by the tax-payer. Under the new Reform Scheme, Education will be a "Transferred Subject," and will be in charge of an Indian Minister, controlled by the elective majority in the Council. There will be ample opportunity and scope, therefore, for remedying the defects of the present system of education. But Mr. Gandhi wants to scrap all the existing educational institutions, and turn all the students adrift. He is going to provide for them what are called "national schools and colleges and Universities." How is he going to get the crores for initial expenditure and crores every year to spend, one does not know? That cannot be secured in a second by his magic wand. But till he is able to do it, the youth of the country are to go without education. He does not mind, I think he said that he would prefer them to be loafers in the streets of Calcutta to their attending colleges and schools that have any connection with Government.

SHORT CUTS WILL NOT WIN SELF-GOVERNMENT.

And what distresses one most is, the way in which Mahomedans are going to suffer. The Mahomedans, compared with other communities, have been backward in education, only recently they have realised the importance of education and have been making very earnest efforts to pick up the other communities in the race. But the Aligarh College and the Muslim University are to be deserted, if Mr. Gandhi prevails, and the clock of Mahomedan educational progress is is to be set back by fifty years. Mr. Gandhi however, does not care. He is prepared to teach the youth of the country to despise and disobey their parents and teachers. however much such a course may be contrary to Indian traditions and subversive of the foundation of society. I am convinced that the propaganda of Non-Cooperation by undermining respect for law and order, must lead to violence and anarchy and will put back by many years the attainment of Self-Government. No nation has won, or can win, self-government by short cuts. It can only be achieved by self-restraint, self-discipline and honest hard work

While therefore, holding the above view about Non-Cooperation, let us enquire why Mr. Gandhi has been able to launch it and why he has secured even the little success that he has for the moment achieved. No agitation acquires any hold, unless circumstances have so developed as to make people amenable to such agitation. During the war the whole of India stood like one man by the British Empire and gave all its resources in men and money to fight the battle of freedom and liberty. Why has the same India so changed that the doctrine of hate against the British Government practised by Mr. Gandhi falls on receptive ears

REMOVE THE ROOT CAUSE

This question must be squarely faced by Government and a solution should be found for the situation. It is obvious that the self-respect of India has been wounded to a degree which unfortunately is not sufficiently realised by those in authority, by the doings in the Punjab, the mishandling of the Khilafat question and the treatment of Indians in the British Dominions. It is because the people have been exasperated and a feeling of despair have come over them in regard to these matters, that it is possible for Mr. Gandhi, to make any headway at all with his propaganda of Non-Cooperation. And until the root causes which have brought about the present state of the public mind which has blinded all reason are removed, it is extremely difficult if not impossible, to make the people realise the dangers of Mr. Gandhi's campaign and the consequences to which it must inevitably lead. It is to the interests of both Britain and India that the wounds from which India is suffering should be healed, and the feeling of mutual confidence and trust restored, by which alone Britain and India, marching together in equal comradeship, can work out their great destiny. I do hope and trust that British statesmanship will grasp the situation and set to work to effect the desired result. Time is precious. Not a moment is to be lost."

LEADERS AGAINST ROWDYISM.

In reply to a letter from Mr. Kanji Dwarkadas, Hon. Secretary, National Home Rule League, in reference to the rowdyism displayed at Mrs. Annie Besant's lecture at the Excelsior Theatre, Mr. Shankerlal Banker wrote on the 4th inst:

"Dear Sirs,—Your letter to hand, you are aware that improper behaviour at ameeting is never encouraged by us. I am ignorant of what Mr. Nimbker did or said yesterday. Nevertheless, I shall try to see Mr. Nimbker and speak to him.

Yours Sincerely.

(Sd) SHANKERLAL BANKER.

TO THE EDITOR OF "THE CHRONICLE."

Dear Sir,—A cowardly and disgraceful act attempted last night as Mrs. Annie Besant was proceeding to her motor car after the meeting had been broken up by the organised and persistant howling and hissing booing and hooling and yelling of a particular section of the audience. Two friends and myself who were the back portion of the cordon and immediately behind Mrs. Besant received small mementoes of "Non-Violent Non-Co-Operation" Blows from behind were delivered on my bak, the head of another and spectacles of the third. Our intention was protection and, thank God, we succeeded. Are we lost to all that is noble, in our culture? Is this the Heroism, the shivalry and the discipline of "Non-Violent Non-Cooperators.—

Yours etc;

FIJI'S MESSAGE TO INDIA.

"BRING THE UNHAPPY PEOPLE HOME".

Mrs. Lila Deep Narain Singh, of Bhagalpore, who has been travelling with her husband, Mr. Deep Narain Singh, in different parts of the world, returned to Bombay a few days ago.

Interviewed, in connection with the Fiji Martial Law regime, by a representative of the "Bombay Chronicle", Mrs. Lila Deep Narain Singh said:—

DR. MANILAL AND MARTIAL LAW.

Before I got to Fiji on the 6th of September I had read a fortnight previously in the "Modern Review", that Dr. Manilal had been deported and that Martial Law had been proclaimed. We were able to land in Fiji without difficulty being in possession of passports obtained in London. Our first step was to get into touch with some of the leading Indians in order to obtain as much information as we could. We had not expected to find a large number of Indians in Fiji, but we were astonished to hear that the population was nearly sixty thousand, i.e., nearly two-thirds of the total population. Suva, the chief port, where we landed seemed part of India as one saw almost nothing but Indian forces and heard nothing but Indian speeches. The port people we made enquiries if seemed rather nervous of giving us any information, but they were so convinced of our bona fides that they directed us ultimately to one of the storekeepers of the town. On his learning that Mr. Singh was a member of the All-India Congress Committee and that we were actuated by no other motive than a desire help our suffering compatriots he sent messages to some of the other leaders to meet us in order to discuss the situation. While awaiting their arrival we drove round to the parts where the Indian labourers live. Broken down hovels, ill-nourished and naked children, a general aspect of extreme poverty met us everywhere. We stopped frequently to talk to some of the people we met on the way. One and all their piteous cry was: "Do what you can to help to send us home?" When we asked them why they did not go if they were anxious to return. They said they were always told there were no steamers to take them, they were unable to disprove of their possessions at anything like a fair value and were always threatened with penalties if they expressed their desire to leave. I asked them why they wanted to leave and they said that the treatment meted out to them was so harsh and the wages they got were so low that they could not even few themselves let alone buy clothing or other necessities and that if they had to die of starvation they would rather go back to their country and die. By the time we returned some of the people we wished to meet had assembled and from them we elicited various parts touching the portion of Indians in Fiji. We found that their position is absolutely inferior. They are disenfranchised. They are subjected to galling differentiations and restrictions "For instance, no India, no matter what his position is allowed to leave his dwelling after 11 o'clock at night, no matter for what reason, without a special permit." This is a general restriction and not one of the special restrictions under Martial Law. Indians are not allowed to be served at the Bar where Europeans are served. Indian children are not admitted in schools where European children study nor even in the special schools provided for the Fijians. In fact the only educational facilities, if one may call them such, are those provided by very few mission schools, which got a small grant from the Government. These schools combine elementary teaching with a strong strain of missionary propaganda. Under the indentured system I believe it was provided for that the children of the labourers should be given educational facilities.

"POLICE, THE PROVOKING BODY."

Coming more particularly to the recent strike and its brutal suppression we were unanimously told that there had been no rioting or misbehaviour on the part of the strikers, but that the assault and attack on the women instigated by the police, provoked the men into defending their women which led to a disturbance. Really the provoking body were the police. Troops had been summoned from New Zealand, unarmed people had been fired at, and one man shot dead while going to market to buy rice for his wife. The account given by the people of the disturbance near the bridges for which in the official version, they were accused of burning and destroying the bridges, was as follows:—A group of people were seated preparing their food on one side of the bridge, the authorities had stationed men on the other side armed with batons and fire-arms. These men asked one of the strikers to come across and parting with them. On his coming he was shot. I tried to ascertain the exact number of people who had been killed or wounded during the fracas. Under Martial Law no Indian was allowed to leave his dwelling without special permit. Even Dr. Manilal had to obtain a permit to go to court to defend the strikers. Not more than five or seven people were allowed to reside under one roof. Not more than two people were allowed to walk abreast in the streets. Floggings, exposures to the sun, tortures, indignities and assaults were quite in keeping with the spirit of Martial Law as we know it. It was another Jallianwalla Bagh on a small scale. I was told that a great many had been injured and done to death—far more than the official version accounted for.

SCALE OF WAGES.

I obtained several facts and figures about the scale of wages of Indians working there as well as those relating to the increased cost of living. Roughly speaking the latter, since the war, had increased from one to three hundred per cent., while wages had in Suva been increased from two shillings a day to two-and-six from 1919 only before that there was no increase, in other districts from 1/6s. to 2 shillings from 1915, and in other places there had been no increase at all on the original two shillings a day wage. A Commission had been appointed to enquire into the cost of living. The majority report recommended no increase, but in some cases a decrease supplemented by small weekly doles of rice—the ground of this recommendation being that the plantations helped the labourers so greatly. With regard to this point very few plantations provide even medical attendance, the condition of the coolie-lines has already been described in Miss Garnham's report where an apartment of 10 by 12 has to serve as dwelling for three men, a man and woman and two children. There is not a single midwife to attend to the Indian women. The scale of rations is based on the pre-war scale use in prisons and although this latter has been increased several times during the war for prisoners, yet the plantation scale for workers remaining the same. Another so-called advantage that the Commission dilated on was that the workers obtained plots of land to live on, but it omitted to mention that they were liable to be turned out at a moment's notice and such cases had frequently occurred and whole families rendered homeless. Two principal witnesses examined by this Commission were Messrs. Hurt and Duncan—both planters. The report of the minority Commission pointed out the increased cost of living and strongly recommended wages being raised at once. The electioneering speeches of various candidates all admit that the discontent is a purely economic question and that something should be done to satisfy the labourers in order to still their desire to return to India. In the words of one candidate: "This country cannot be developed without Indian labour and if these people go back to tell their story we shall not get any further labour from India at all, what is to be done?"

REPRESSION.

The strike was broken by taking away the leaders of the people under the pretence of political agitation were deported without trial. By the brutalities enforced under Martial Law and by the unjustified use of armed force. We were told that we could Dr. Manilal in New Zealand and from him we should learn any further information. Over 11,000 labourers had already registered their names for repatriation, and hundreds more were registering daily. This fear of loosing the labour, which helped to pile up millions of pounds of profit, was alarming the Europeans, and every obstacle is being put in the way of their return.

All the people, again and again, begged us to give this message to our people in India, and without delay to institute independent enquiry by a representative Indian body—not any Government commissions. And above all to arrange for ships to bring the unhappy people home. They were willing to sacrifice their few possessions, as they said: "We came without a pice and we will go without a pice."

There is an Indian nominated to the Governor's Council. This gentleman is ignorant of English, has no education, and is in no way representative of people. We met Dr. Manilal in New Zealand, and he substantiated all we had seen and heard. He explained to us that technically speaking he was not deported as the Governor of Fiji has no power to do so. But he was restricted to certain areas, and such areas being unfit for any human-beings to live in. Of his own accord he went to Australia, and thence to New Zealand.

It is absolutely necessary that something should be done about this question without delay. One cannot help realizing that the crux of the whole matter is: "As long as we are not free in our own country, we are powerless to do anything to better conditions for our people elsewhere.

STORY OF MAHOMAD ALI'S EJECTION.

"SERIOUS QUESTION BEFORE TRUSTEES."

(Associated Press.)

The Hon. Secretary M. A. O. College Aligarh wires under date Nov. 3:—

"I have already wired that Mr. Mohamad Ali at last withdrew himself and the students who had defied all the orders of the Principal on the morning of Oct. 31st when the District Magistrate, Mr. Campbell very politely asked him not to involve the students in trouble.

A few more details may be useful. The total number of the Trustees at present is 124, of whom 62 attended the meeting on 27th Oct. in person while 28 sent messages condemning the action of the Ali Brothers and their associates. Only two trustees sent messages supporting their action. The meeting lasted all day.

EMERGENCY MEETING.

It has been called as an emergency meeting though not specifically provided in the rules as Mr. Shaukat Ali and his friends demanded a decision by the 29th. As will appear from the following letter sent by them on the 12th which has not been published as yet.

"Dear Sir,—In view of the open hostility shown by Great Britain to Islam in the treaty forced upon Turkey, the destruction of the sacred Islamic Institution of the Khilafat attended therein and the continued occupation of the Jazirat-ul Arab, the Non-Cooperation Committee of the All-India Khilafat Conference has decided that all educational institutions which are either carried on or in any way controlled by Government or which receive its aid must be boycotted and all students and teachers must be withdrawn from them. The All-India Muslim League and the Indian National Congress have also passed similar resolutions at their special sessions recently held at Calcutta. We feel certain that in existing circumstances it must be as repugnant to our colleagues of the Board of Trustees of the M. A. O. College and of the Muslim University Association as it is to us to receive any financial aid for those institutions from or permit any kind of interference therein by a Government which has so contemptuously disregarded our religious obligations and national sentiments and so unscrupulously betrayed its own repeated pledges. We, therefore, call upon you and other Trustees of the M. A. O. College and members of the Muslim University Association to refuse henceforth, to receive any aid from Government or to permit any kind or sort of Government interference directly or indirectly through the Allahabad University or any other agency in these institutions and we desire to inform you and our other colleagues that we are also calling upon the teachers and the adult students at Aligarh to withdraw themselves and upon the guardians of the students to withdraw their wards from the College and the School on the 29th of October 1920, in the event of the Trustees refusal to comply with these obvious requirements of the Islamic faith. We, therefore, request you with all the earnestness at our command to take the action we recommend at the earliest possible date and to treat this matter as of the greatest possible urgency.

We remain yours most obediently (1) H. M. Ajmal Khan, (2) M. A. Ansari, (3) Moamali Khan, (4) Zahoor Ahmed, (5) Shaukat Ali (Khadim Kaba), (6) Mohd Ali (Khadim Kaba), (7) Ismail Khan, (8) H. M. Musa Khan, (9) Amustafa Khani.

IMMEDIATE ACTION.

The meeting lasted all day. Since that meeting the Trustees and Syndicate have met daily, some times sitting from 6 to 11 p.m. and discussed the situation and ways and means of getting Mr. Mohamad Ali and his friends to withdraw themselves and the students who had refused to go to their homes from the College premises but all attempts had failed. Individual Trustees of high social standing had also approached Dr. Ansari and Hakim Ajmal Khan but with no better success. Though these two gentlemen said that they were going to vacate the college premises on the 1st of November or thereabout they would give no definite undertaking in writing. While the Trustees were trying to act with every consideration and were anxious to avoid any coercion or force, Mr. Mohamad Ali had openly declared that he had no intention of moving or opening a separate National College or University, his object being to purify this very College. He had also collected students with few exceptions in the main quadrangle some rooms of which were forced open. It was reported that he intended to break open some of the lecture rooms and take forcible possession of the Principal's office. He started making admission of students to his so-called National College by swearing each student on the Holy Quran. It was reported that Mr. Mohamad Ali was about to be joined by his brother and the professors and that the students of other colleges who had struck were coming to his National College. The situation was hourly getting more and more serious and it was felt by all that if action had to be taken it must be taken immediately or never. The Trustees could not take the law into their own hands and boldly eject Mr. Mohamad Ali or the students. They, therefore, had to seek the protection of the civil authorities and it was decided by the Syndicate 8 p.m. on the 30th that the District Authorities should be approached. Accordingly the Hon. Secretary acting under the instructions of the Syndicate applied to the District Magistrate to deal with the situation in the best way he could.

AT THE MOSQUE.

The District Magistrate made arrangemsnt to prevent outsiders from coming into the College grounds and to protect College buildings and properties against damage; and at 5-30 a.m. on the 31st, men of the civil police without arms and with a few armed police were posted round the Sir Syed Court as the main quadrangle of the College boarding house is called, in which the great bulk of the students were living, while some armed police were posted round the old Boys' Lodge situated in the grounds, in which Mr. Mohamad Ali and some of his friends were living at the time. The District Magistrate, Mr. Campbell accompanied by the Hon. Secretary arrived at the Old Boys' Lodge and found Mr. Mohamad Ali and his friends standing on the verandah. Mr. Campbell spoke courteously and apologised for disturbing them so early. After a few minutes' conversation Mr. Mohamad Ali expressed his willingness to advise the students to withdraw peacefully. Neither at that time nor at any subsequent time did Mr. Mohamad Ali hint that he was suffering from fever as he sat talking and watching outside the lodge till midday. The District Magistrate and the Hon. Secretary came out leaving Mr. Mohamad Ali and his friends to perform their morning prayers for which 45 minutes were asked. After this interval Mr. Mohamad Ali and his friends came out and expressed their intention of going to the College Mosque for their morning prayers. After going a short way two of the Moulvis accompanying Mr. Mohamad Ali said that they has already performed their devotions in their rooms and so were allowed to return to the lodge. Mr. Mohamad Ali then proceeded to the Mosque. The District Magistrate remained outside the Mosque gate while Mr. Mohamad Ali and his friends and a few students who had come out of their rooms went into the Mosque to say their morning prayers.

Before Mr. Mohamad Ali entered the Mosque Mr. Campbell asked him not to make a speech or address the students in the Mosque, whereupon Mr. Mohamad Ali told Mr. Campbell that the Mosque was intended to be used only for prayers and not for any other purpose, thus with his own lips giving the lie to his own doings in the Mosque on the 29th of October on the occasion of his inauguration of his National University when many Hindus were for the first time in the history of the College seen sitting in the Mosque and about the tombs of the founder and others that are buried in a corner of he Mosque. After saying his prayers Mohamad Ali came out and at the request of the District Magistrate told the students to withdraw peacefully. The students then went off to pack up and by half past twelve (Noon) the students and their belongings had been carried in motor lorries and other conveyance provided by the District Magistrate to two bungalows outside the College grounds and separated by a road only from Minto Circle in which the schools are located. Some tents had also been pitched in the grounds of these bungalows. After half past twelve the students assembled on the cricket ground opposite the Old Boys' Lodge carrying a green flag and with Mr. Mohamad Ali marched to their new abode with cries of "Alah O Akbar," Mr. Mohamad Ali asked permission of the District Magistrate to return to the Old Boys Lodge for his midday dinner.

"DISAGREEABLE CHAPTER."

This closed a most disagreeable chapter in the proceedings and the immediate danger has yet to come and this is only the beginning of our troubles. The number of students who in spite of the principal's orders to leave the College premises remained in the boarding house was about one hundred or so. Notic had been given them three days in advance that the College was to be closed and as usual from the date of closing of the College, the dining hall also was closed and the menial staff was removed.

I think most of these students had not paid up their college dues which were in arrears. I am making enquiries on this point.

"A BANEFUL MENACE."

Since leaving the College premises Mr. Mohamad Ali and the students withdrawn by him have been living in two or three houses and tents not far from the College and separated from the Minto Circle by a road only, Mr. Shaukat Ali has since joined them. Mr. Mohamad Ali is said to have announced in very clear terms that he has no intention of starting any Educational Institution and has shown by his deeds and words that his sole object is to capture the impressionable youth and keep them together and train them as religious fanatics for the purpose of his propaganda which is nothing short of revolutionary. Such being the attitude and object of Mr. Mohamad Ali and his associates, a most serious question before the Trustees is whether the College can ever be opened again. As long as the centre of Mr. Mohamad Ali's activities remains in such close proximity to the College, it will be impossible to carry on the work of the College for a day and parents will not send their son knowing that we should be powerless to protect them against the baneful menace at our very door for Mr. Mohamad Ali when asking the students peacefully to withdraw from the College said that the withdrawal was only temporary as he intended to bring them back before long. He has on more than one occasion repeated his intentions of returning to the College some day and of converting it into his National College as in his opinion the present Trustees by their refusal to listen to the commands of God through Mr. Mohamad Ali's mouth have forfeited their right to remain as Trustees.

EMIGRATION TO BRITISH GUIANA.

Q.—Do you favour the idea of Indian emigration to British Guiana?

A.—Certainly not. It is, perhaps, the most malaria stricken place on the face of the earth and the Indian death rate has been appalling. Mr. Luckoo who came over here did not represent the Indian population as he asserted. It is practically certain that any fresh labour emigration so far away from India would be exploited by the sugar capitalists. The best and safest policy is not to reopen the question till India is free and independent and can decide entirely for herself.

Q.—Is it true that you were offered a place on the proposed Government of India Committee to British Guiana?

A.—Yes, but I refused.

Q.—Will it not be desirable if we wish to prevent further labour emigration to British Guiana that no Indian should accept a place on this proposed Commission?

A.—Yes, I think it is most desirable that there should be a very strong and emphatic national decision that recruiting shall in no case whatever be reopened until India can effectively protect her own children outside as a free and independent country. This would as a matter of course involve the boycotting of such commissions if they were sent out against this national decision.

FIJI IMMIGRANTS.

Q.—Complaints have appeared in the press that the Indians returning from Fiji found themselves forsaken and stranded here. You have, of course, seen the complaints.

A.—Yes. This has pained me more than anything I have heard for a long time past. I could not go myself to meet the last returning ship but I sent the one whom I most trusted for this purpose. He stayed with the returning emigrants for some days. He also brought to me at Bolpur and in Calcutta at a later date certain persons who had returned from there. I have heard the whole story and it appears to be a very disgraceful one. There was not the slightest arrangement made by any Seva Samiti to meet the emigrants on their return. There was scarcely anything done by any person in Calcutta with the exception of the editor and staff of the "Bharat Mitra" who have always been the truest friends of the emigrants. But what they could do was very little. The Marwari Association used to help, but now its interests have been taken up by other concerns. The consequence was that the emigrants were fleeced right and left by their own countrymen. I heard of one man who was charged Rs. 10 for ticca gharry hire from Garden Roach to Howrah Station, while the proper charge should have been Rs 1/8 to Rs 2. All kinds of temptations were put in their way and certain amount of police zulum was also experienced. I have found out that in many cases even when these emigrants went back to their own homes they were not received because of some caste restrictions. I have been told on first rate authority that many are waiting for the return of the ship to go back to Fiji because they have been left penniless and stranded and unbefriended in their own country. I do not hink anything with regard to the whole affair of Fiji has distressed me as much as this. They were quite clear in their reports about the zulum that had been practised on them in Fiji but one of them actually said to me with his own lips that the zulum which had been practised on them by their own countrymen in robbing them of their last penny had been even worse. One young telegraph operator who had come back in disgust at the zulum during the late Fiji disturbances was actually reduced to doing heavy casual labour at six annas a day at the Calcutta docks as a porter and he is now at the present time at Shanti Niketan waiting for some employment. I am afraid that the same thing may happen perhaps in a lesser degree in Bombay and Madras. Could not the Imperial Indian Citizenship Association make a thorough investigation and call for volunteers from the Seva Samiti Committees in order to put an end to this national dishonour? We shall be laughed in the face by the very men who have tyrannized over us in Fiji if these emigrants go back in this mood and tell the shameful story of our neglect out there. I am glad to see from the Repatriation Commissioner's Scheme in South Africa that the Government of India "are making arrangements to receive Indians returning to India and to find them an employment." "Labour depots are being opened at Bombay, Calcutta and Madras." Certainly these late emigrants of Fiji had no news whatever of any such labour depot in Calcutta. It appears to me almost impossible that any Calcutta depot could have been established in full working order without their being informed. But, however, this may be, and whatever the Government may do or not do one thing is certain we ought ourselves to take up this question as a national duty.

STANDARD BAROMETER READING.

The following information is published in order that vessels in the Bombay Harbour may by comparison with a standard instrument ascertain the errors of their barometer:—

The reading of the Standard Barometer in the Colaba Observatory corrected for index error and reduced to 80 deg. F, and to the level of the tide at 6-45 a.m., Standard Time on the 5th Nov. 1920 was 30·098 inches. For temperature corrections applicable to mercurial barometer of ships the roading of the ship's barometer has to be increased or decreased by 0·13 inch. for every 5 deg. according as the temperature of the attached thesmometer is respectively below or above 80 deg. F. In case of the aneroid the temperature correction is needed but for comparison at 80 deg. F. all aneroid readings should be increased by 138 inch. For correcting the ship's barometer either mercurial or aneroid for the height of the barometer cistern above the tide in the stream at 8-42 a.m., Standard Time the ship's barometer readings should be increased by 0·10 inch. for every 16 feet of the height to make it comparable with the observatory barometer reading given.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

RANGOON, Nov. 3.

The Youngmen's Buddhist Association's Conference at Prome closed after passing resolutions, among others, demanding reduction of salt duty with granting of more licenses, protesting against rice control, demanding for control of foreign imported goods, postponement of reservation of ninety million acres unclassed forest, etc., protesting against local Government's letter of January last in connection with the Reforms, and also thanking Mr. Barnard Houghton and Col. Wedgwood for the services they rendered to Burma and the Burmans.

COW SLAUGHTER PROHIBITED IN HUBLI.

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

The Hubli Municipality in their General Meeting held on 26th October 1920, passed the following resolution.

"With regard to the second question Mr. V. N. Joshi, proposed and Mr. S. T. Kambi, seconded that the Slaughter of the Milch Cows and Calves on the lines of the Bombay Humanitarian League be prohibitted at Hubli in future and that the Managing Committee be authorised to make necessary arrangements with the present butchers for carrying out the resolution immediately and successfully."

We hope that other Municipalities will follow the example of the Hubli Municipality and take adequate measures to stop the slaughter of cows, calves and bullocks.

CHINA'S STARVING MILLIONS.

RELIEF URGENTLY NEEDED.

Heartending accounts continue to reach Peking from the famine districts with the Peking correspondent of "The Times" in Mail week. Mistress is fast increasing and extreme cold will soon add to the sufferings of the starving people.

A foreign investigator who has just returned from these regions says that if relief is not got going "full blast" within six weeks, millions will perish. In parts of the districts, however, there is no prospect of relief on anything like an adequate scale, and nothing can save the doomed millions. Many relief organizations have sprung into existence, but so far none has got to work, and the question of co-ordination of effort has not yet been solved.

Meanwhile, the Government proposes various construction works to give employment to the starving population. Among these are trunk roads, suitable for motor traffic, linking Peking-Peitaiho, Tientsin-Tsinanfu, Tsinanfu-Kaifeng, Shefoo-Weibsein. These, together with the recently opened Tientsin-Paotingfu motor-road would coustitute a splendid feeder system for the existing railways and would generally serve to promote oconomic development. Not only will they be the means of saving life on a large scale, but they will accelerate trade expansion and, especially, increase the ever-growing demand for motor traction, which has become quite a feature of the import trade of China. Foreigners, therefore, can serve a business, as well as a charitable, end by assisting the Government to find the necessary funds.

The Treaty Powers have been asked to consent to an additional half per cent., equivalent to a surtax of 10 per cent., on the customs duties for one year, which would give the Government between four and five million dollars [between £8,00,000 and £1,000,000], a similar surtax being put on postal, telegraphic, railway, salt, and other public charges, but the proceeds will not be sufficient for the works described unless the foreign, Powers consent to the surtax on Customs duties. Incidentally, 90 per cent. of the surtax would fall on British, Japanese, and American trade, roughly in the proportions of 36, 36, and 18 per cent. It will be disappointing if any of the Powers concerned allow themselves to be influenced by the possibility that their volume of trade may be affected by the small additional duty proposed. It is essential, however, if the increase is sanctioned, that the expenditure of the proceeds shall be under foreign supervision, otherwise they will go as all public money goes in this country.

There is not a shadow of doubt that a monumental tragedy is even now being enacted in China, and the one way in which foreigners can most speedily and conveniently help is to consent promptly to the surtax and make immediate advances against it. The Government is already "up to the neck" in financial difficulty, and it has no other means of finding funds on a substantial scale.

MR. MARSDEN AGAIN!

"CENSURED" OFFICER BACK.

"A Kasuri" writes to the "Tribune."

The readers of the "Tribune" are, no doubt, aware of Mr. Marsden's activities during the Martial Law regime and his hostile attitude towards the Khilafat movement. In the course of his evidence before the Hunter Committee, Mr. Marsden went so far as to say that he still required Martial Law. It was, therefore, a matter of satisfaction to the people of Kasur when in April last Mr. Marsden was transferred to a cooler region and his place taken up by Mr. Oglivie. It should be admitted to the credit of Mr. Oglivie that during his short stay at Kasur he did not give any cause of annoyance to the public. It is therefore a matter of regret that Mr. Oglivie has again been replaced by Mr. Marsden, who as your readers are aware, has already taken over charge. I hope Government would yet rectify this wrong by transferring Mr. Marsden from Kasur, otherwise they will have to thank themselves by giving stimulus to Mahatma Gandhi's Non-cooperation scheme, which is sure to have a firm footing at Kasur during Mr. Marsden's administration.

Oldsmobile

Eight

IT IS characteristic of the Oldsmobile "8" that it completely satisfies so many types of people—with such a wide variety of tastes and motor car requirements. The man of a mechanical turn of mind says: "It is a masterpiece of advanced engineering." The matron who drives her own car exclaims: "It is so wonderfully easy to handle and so perfectly comfortable!" The lad, with an eye for the spectacular, voices his enthusiasm by saying: "There's nothing like it for quick get-away—and boy! how it eats up the hills on high." The business man, interested in results rather than details, says: "It is a car I can absolutely depend upon and it is very economical." All take keen pride in its distinguished appearance.

Whether the Oldsmobile "8" is compared feature by feature with other cars of similar price, or whether it is considered simply as the all-around excellent car that it is, the result is the same. Every comparison emphasizes its supreme value. Every comparison proves that Oldsmobile sets the pace.
